

Guidelines and criteria for online submission of SUB-THEME PROPOSALS for EGOS Colloquia

Sub-theme proposal submissions are expected to include an outline of the proposed theme and the related area of interest (maximum of 2 pages), as well as a short description of the team of convenors, including their academic background and experience. Submissions should be linked with the overall Colloquium theme; however, sub-theme proposals should avoid repetition of the overall Colloquium theme in their titles.

Convenor teams of an EGOS Colloquium should conform to the following principles:

- Diversity with respect to gender, geographical background, and academic age.
- Include at least one convenor with experience in organizing and running a sub-theme at a previous EGOS Colloquium.
- Maximum convenor team size is three scholars; proposals from teams of four or more convenors will not be considered.

Submission period for sub-theme proposals for the 41st EGOS Colloquium in Athens, July 3–5, 2025:

- Start: Friday, September 29, 2023
- End: Monday, December 4, 2023, 23:59:59 CET

1. To submit (and upload) a sub-theme proposal, the main submitter/convenor has to be (a) either a so-called “registered user” or (b) an active (or former) EGOS member:
  - If you have neither been an active EGOS member, nor a registered user, nor ever uploaded a short paper or a sub-theme proposal for the EGOS Colloquia, you first of all need to become a registered user! Please click on “Join EGOS here” at the top of the EGOS website.
  - If you are an active or former EGOS member, log in to “MyEGOS” using your email address (or your EGOS member number) + your password.
2. After having successfully logged into the EGOS website with your email/EGOS member number or with your registered user number, please go to your MyEGOS and click on (2025 Athens) “Submit Sub-theme Proposal”.

Please fill in the form [all boxes marked with * are mandatory!]
