

Guidelines and criteria for the submission of short papers at EGOS Colloquia

European
Group for Organizational Studies

Short papers should focus on the main ideas of the later full paper, i.e. they should explain the purpose of the paper, theoretical background, the research gap that is addressed, the approach taken, the methods of analysis (in empirical papers), main findings and contributions. In addition, it is useful to indicate clearly how the paper links with the sub-theme and the overall theme of the Colloquium, although not all papers need to focus on the overall theme. Creativity, innovativeness, theoretical grounding and critical thinking are typical characteristics of EGOS papers.

Your short paper should comprise around 3,000 words (inc. references, appendices & other material).

Submission period for short papers for the (main) 39th EGOS Colloquium in Cagliari, July 6–8, 2023:

– Start: Monday, September 26, 2022

– End: Tuesday, January 10, 2023, 23:59 Central European Time (CET)

The deadline of January 10, 2023 is unchangeable and therefore extensions can categorically not be granted!

Prior to uploading your short paper

 To upload a short paper, you have to be either (a) a so-called “registered user” or (b) an active (or former) EGOS member.

- Line spacing: 1.5
- Citation of references: according APA

Do not use capital letters in your paper’s title, unless they are proper nouns (e.g. “London”, “Thomas”), quoted titles, or if it is the first word after a colon or hyphen. For example:

Mark Twain’s “The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn”: Summary, analyses and quotations

Please state your name (and that of your co-author/s, if applicable) + affiliation + email at the top of your short paper [because no (single/double blind) peer review].

 You can only upload one short paper with your EGOS member number!

If your short paper is co-authored and you have already submitted a (single-authored) short paper to another sub-theme, then your co-author (one of your co-authors, respectively) has to upload this co-authored short paper by using her/his EGOS member number.

Please note: You may only appear as co-author in a maximum of TWO further short papers!
